

Utilising smart technologies to empower peoples lives

“smart technologies goes beyond prevention: they can be the enabler to do something by yourself, that otherwise would be taken for granted by anyone who can do something without assistance...”

...though smart technologies alone aren't the solution: they should be considered as part of a wrap-around offer including human support and engagement with local services”

Rich Amos

@lifeonwheels87

linkedin.com/in/lifeonwheels87